Joe:

I could do that—do you have a deadline for this? I'll probably need to add a day or two, depending on how much is already done.

Sorry! By default, I presume that everybody is based out of Redmond, Washington. ;-) Please transfer your information over to this one. When finished, please fax it to me: [REDACTED]

Fortunately, your contract is already in progress and being written under the "onetime payment" program. By the way, since you will already be diving into Word ML, are you interested in documenting it for us? I've attached what I believe we currently have (under the Microsoft NDA for now). It's a piece of work we want to do but don't have a body assigned yet. (I have an e-mail into the Word group asking about the expected level of detail...)

Joe
